PUBLICATION SCHEME ON INFORMATION AVAILABLE UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

The Governing Body is responsible for the maintenance of this scheme.

INTRODUCTION : what is a publication scheme and why has it been developed?

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we have adopted the ICO's model publication scheme. The model publication is copied in full at section 5 this document.

Personal information held by the school will not be made public: section 40(2) FOIA.

1. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Holland Park is a highly successful and over-subscribed comprehensive school in the heart of west central London. In 2013 it converted to an academy. Recognized as 'an outstanding school' by OFSTED and praised in the Good Schools Guide.

The school is profoundly committed to exacting high standards, to demanding excellence from its staff and students. It is a driven institution where students' success lies at the core of all planning. It seeks to be ambitious, to be bold for students' futures. Seeing people's potential and making detailed plans for its realization is at the centre of its approach. Recognizing people's personal strengths and development profile is important. Career planning for staff and students is intentionally diverse and personalized, building on capacity and believing that aspiration is for all.

Very little at Holland Park happens by chance or accident: this is a planned, well-articulated institution which relishes its responsibility for driving forwards fast and is passionate about equality of opportunity.

A life at Holland Park means commitment, passion, drive, attention to detail, academic rigour, aspirational targets and a fundamental understanding that beneath all of this beats the individual human heart.

All documents within the publication scheme are a means of identifying how we pursue these aims.
